

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE ADRIATIC-IONIAN MARITIME PASSENGER TRANSPORT OBSERVATORY

What is an observatory ?

it's an institution specially designed and equipped for observing and analysing given events mobilizing a range of multidisciplinary skills.

GOAL

To share solutions, policies and best practices on targeted challenges related to sustainable maritime passengers transport in the Adriatic-Ionian basin

Subjects involved:
 all A.-I. countries
 Coming from

Public administrations

Logistics
 & transport players

Port authorities

Regional devl.
 Agencies

Economic & service actors

Universities
 & research centres

Tourism & travel players

THE Aims of the Observatory are....

- 1 Promotion of territorial and crossborder cooperation
- 2 Influence political bodies (lobbying actions)
- 3 Reflect & propose common legislative issues
- 4 Reflect & propose common technical issues

And it will act as to

- 1 cooperate for a joint policy to promote Adriatic-Ionian
- 2 promote the Adriatic-Ionian basin in a wider MED scenario
- 3 propose the standardization of administrative procedures and legal frameworkian
- 4 provide the statistical framework for the Adriatic-Ionian area
- 5 monitor EU different calls (also for self-financing)
- 6 be the exchange hub for spreading of best practices on passengers transport
- 7 conduct studies, research, info-training

What we reached ?
 project Partners approved

CHARTER

Memorandum of Understanding

ORGANIZATION

Managing Body

Members' Council

Technical Thematic Operative Working Tablets

Starting activities by 2017